

Stolen Trumpets and French Horn

Stolen 30 August 2006

Near Symphony Hall, Boston, MA

On 30 August 2006 the following instruments were stolen from a parked car, three blocks from Boston's Symphony Hall:

- Engelbert Schmid Full Double French Horn
 - Model: Yellow brass horn; Medium, hand hammered gold brass bell with garland
 - Serial Number: #24097
- Horn Case: Marcus Bonna split-bell case
- Yamaha Xeno C Trumpet (“Artist Model - Chicago”)
 - Model: YTR-9445CHS
 - Serial Number: #476910
- Bach Stradivarius B-flat Trumpet
 - Model: 180S-37 Lightweight Medium-Large
 - Serial Number: #495244
- Set of 5 Monette Mouthpieces
 - Models: B3, B15M, C15M, E15M, AP2
- Trumpet Case: Wolfpak 2.5 Trumpet/Piccolo with Wolfpak Accessory/Mute bag and Wolfpak 3-piece foam mouthpiece case and Marcus Bonna 2-piece nylon mouthpiece case.

These instruments belong to Kristen Dirmeier and Fred Sienkiewicz. Please watch for them and contact us immediately if you see them.

Kristen Dirmeier
kristen@dirmeier.org
617.861.7819

Fred Sienkiewicz
fred@sienkiewicz.org
617.217.1004

We have filed a report with the police, which, due to administrative and jurisdiction rules is with the Everett PD. They are not actively pursuing the case:

- Everett, MA Police Department
 - Phone: 617-389-2120
 - Theft Report Number: 371930
 - Detective: Detective Sgt. Jedkey

Thank you for your attention to this and your watchfulness with regards to these instruments. Again, if you see or hear of anything that might be a lead to them, please contact us immediately.

Sincerely and Thankfully,
Fred & Kristen